Dear Colleagues:

It's a pleasure to invite you and your companions to join a legal-study tour to Vietnam. The trip leaves from San Francisco via United Airlines on December 30, 2008 and returns on January 9, 2009. We can arrange for connecting flights from many U.S. cities.

The comprehensive program includes visits to Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City), Hanoi, Hue and graceful Halong Bay.

In addition to an extensive sightseeing program, we will have the opportunity to meet with fellow legal professionals in Vietnam as part of the optional legal education program. We plan to have a formal meeting with Vietnamese lawyers in Ho Chi Minh City and are extending invitations for other lawyers to visit us for dinner in other locations. We will explore the Vietnamese transition from a purely Communist state to a part of the rest of the world.

Recently Vietnam has opened its doors to welcome visitors, offering stunning visual beauty and rich cultural diversity spanning over 4,000 years. Its government has undertaken an intense program of economic reforms that have transformed its economy. Many American companies now have offices in Vietnam, including the Bank of America, Boeing, and even Baskin-Robbins ice cream stores.

We anticipate that the trip will qualify for at least 5.0 hours for Continuing Legal Credit for Pennsylvania, California and many other states. At the completion of the tour you will receive a certificate of attendance.

This will be my fifteenth trip as education leader for legal-study tours. I have led trips to Greece; China; Russia; France; Poland and the Czech Republic; Morocco; South Africa; Thailand, Singapore and Bali; Chile and Argentina; and Kenya and Tanzania. I have been impressed with the balance between the sightseeing with the opportunity to discuss legal issues both with local professionals and among ourselves. The trip package includes:

- Scheduled Airline Tickets
- Four Star Hotels
- American Escort from start to finish
- Optional CLE program
- Meetings with Lawyers
- Full Sightseeing Program with Local Guides
- Full Meal Plan

He first went on the trial bench in Philadelphia in 1971 as the youngest judge in the history of Pennsylvania. He served in all major civil and criminal trial courts.

He has been a pioneer in many new programs designed to improve the justice system. He is vice-chair of the Pennsylvania Futures Commission. He is one of the leaders in Court Technology Programs. He is active in A.D.R. programs, serving as co-chair of the Futures Commission's A.D.R. task force and on local and state bar technology committees. He formed and is chair emeritus of the Pennsylvania Bar Association "Plain English" committee. He serves on the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's Appellate Rules Committee.

He has taught, lectured and written widely. He taught trial advocacy and legal writing at Temple Law School for over fifteen years. He is co-author of the trial practice book, Trial Communication Skills, published by West and now in its second edition. Judge Klein contributed "Lessons for Litigators from the O.J. Simpson trial" for the revised edition. He chaired Philadelphia's jury selection committee and has led that city's effort to improve jury procedures. He was the supervising judge of Philadelphia's 5,000+ asbestos case program, and many of his innovations were followed nationally. Judge Klein has written articles and given educational programs for other judges, continuing legal education programs, and law school students that are too numerous to list.

Judge Klein is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Amherst College, which he attended as a National Merit Scholarship winner. He graduated with honors from Harvard Law School. ## Your Itinerary

Day 1. Depart USA

We Depart San Francisco via United Airlines to Hong Kong with a connection flight into Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon)

About Vietnam

Vietnam has opened its doors and welcomes Americans and other foreign visitors. It offers travelers stunning visual beauty and rich cultural diversity that spans over 4,000 years. Vietnam has undertaken an intense program of economic reforms that have improved the economy, and many American companies have offices there including Bank of America, Boeing and Baskin & Robbins.

For tourists, Vietnam is a land of tree-lined beaches and tranquil bays dotted with the sails of sampans, junks, offshore coral islands, mountains, valleys and plains crossed by countless rivers and rich emerald rice fields. Villagers in conical hats still carefully tend a patchwork of paddy fields with rudimentary tools while their children ride water buffaloes home from the fields at days end.

It's also a land of fast paced cities overflowing with a tide of humanity borne along on a swarm of bicycles and motor scooters. Vietnamese welcome Americans and other foreign visitors. Changing fortunes are settling into the country to everyone's benefit.

Day 2 (D) After making connections in Hong Kong we arrive at Ho Chi Minh City (once called Saigon). After customs formalities, we are taken to the Equatorial Hotel.

About Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon)

Ho Chi Minh is Vietnam's largest city and river port. Founded by the French in 1859 and called Saigon by many (Ho Chi Minh never really caught on), is filled with the French presence of colonial architecture and long tree-lined streets. The city is constantly on the move with the hustle and bustle entrepreneurs everywhere in a budding free market economy encouraged by government reforms. English is widely spoken.

Day 3 (B/L/D) We tour Saigon and the Cu Chi Tunnels. Equatorial Hotel (It's New Years Eve)

Today we take a half day city tour which including visits to the Notre Dame Cathedral, the Reunification Palace, Ben Thang Market and Chinatown. After lunch, we go to Cu Chi Tunnels and visit the vast underground network of tunnels built first as a defence against the French, and later expanded during the American war. You will marvel at their ingenuity. See secret trapdoors, underground kitchens, living areas and meeting rooms. Your guide will advise you of the length and level of difficulty of each tunnel before entering - some that are easily accessed by stairs. Wear good walking shoes and sun block for this tour. After the tour, we have dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 4 (B/D) This morning we meet with Vietnamese lawyers. This afternoon is free. This evening enjoy a dinner cruise. Equatorial Hotel

We attend to our professional agenda and meet with Vietnamese lawyers this morning.. This afternoon is free. Tonight we take a dinner cruise on the Saigon River on board the Bonsai I cruise ship and socialize and enjoy Asian and Western cuisines.

Day 5 (B/L/D) This morning we travel to Hue and tour the Old Imperial City and the Imperial Tomb of Emperor of Tu Duc. Saigon Morin Hotel

After breakfast, we travel to Hue by air. On arrival, we tour the Old Imperial City and the Imperial Tomb of Emperor of Tu Duc.

About Hue

Visitors to Hue are often taken aback to discover that the sleepy provincial town of Hue was the religious, economic and cultural center, Imperial headquarters and political capital of Vietnam until 1945. One of the most famous sights in Hue, the Thien Mu Pagoda an octagonal tower of seven tiers rises majestically over the tranquil Perfume (Huong) River. There you see robed monks chanting their mantra, or novices carefully tending the bonsai garden.

Thirteen Nguyen Dynasty Emperors ruled Vietnam from Hue. The city suffered damages during the war, but today has regained its royal demeanour and is a calm, peaceful and relaxed place to visit. The remaining French colonial garden houses and villas, the quiet streets, the riverbanks, the outlying tombs and pagodas that escaped damage - all give Hue a unique atmosphere of tranquillity.

The hills surrounding Hue are dotted with the tombs of the Nguyen dynasty emperors. Built not only as an eternal resting place, the tombs were designed for recreation where the Emperor could fish, hunt and enjoy the company of concubines in his twilight years. The Imperial Citadel, which has a 10km perimeter, was built in 1804 by Emperor Gia Long (the first Nguyen emperor) on a site chosen by geomancers.

Day 6 (B/L/D) We take a cruise over the Perfume River and visit Thiem Mu Pagoda, then travel to Hoi An via Danang. Life Heritage Resorts

This morning, we cruise on the Perfume River and visit the iconic Thiem Mu Pagoda. Then we continue our along the beautiful coastline of central Vietnam to the thriving city of Danang. In Danang we tour the famous Cham Museum and China Beach where American soldiers went for rest and relaxation during the Vietnam War. (remember the China Beach T.V. series)

Next we travel to the beautiful town of Hoi via the beautiful Marble Mountains speckled with caves and shrines. Finally, we arrive at the town of Hoi where we have dinner and overnight.

Day 7 (B/L/D) We sightsee in Hoi An, then fly to Hanoi. Melia Hotel

Today we sightsee in Hoi An, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and exquisitely preserved old merchant town with colorful shops and temples dating back four centuries.

This afternoon, travel back to Danang Airport for our flight to Hanoi, the capital city of Vietnam. On arrival, we go to the Melia Hotel and have dinner.

About Hanoi

According to the New York Times “Hanoi is arguably the most beautiful city in Southeast Asia”. A city of quiet tropical charm borne of 1,000 years of history and struggle, Hanoi is one of the friendliest and most inviting capitals of Asia. Hanoi retains much of its French Colonial heritage, and the French architectural legacy. And the abundance of trees and lakes around the city give Hanoi a romantic air unusual for an Asian city. The heart of the city rests in the Old Quarter, an area of artisans and craftsmen with its temples and pagodas dating from the fifteenth century.

Day 8 (B/L) This morning we sightsee in Hanoi, followed by a trip to Halong Bay and the most stunning sightseeing in Vietnam. Halong Plaza Hotel

Today we sightsee in Hanoi. Among the sights we will see are: Pillar Pagoda, Temple of Literature. Ho Chi Minh House and the Old City. After a late lunch, we travel by coach to spectacular Ha Long Bay.

About Ha Long Bay

Ha Long Bay’s tranquil beauty covers 580 square miles and is speckled with limestone islands and inlets, bizarre rock sculptures and many grottos. The sails of junks and sampans against that scenery creates a world lost in time. Ha Long means “dragon descending” and Ha Long Bay was twice declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site: first in 1994 for its natural scenic beauty, and again in 2000 for its biological interest. The most spectacular of the bay’s grottoes is the beautiful cave of Hang Dau Go with its stalactites and stalagmites resembling beasts, birds, and human forms.

Day 9 (B/L) Cruise on Halong Bay Ha Long Plaza Hotel

Today we take a spectacular cruise on Ha Long Bay via traditional wooden junk. We take in the emerald waters and craggy limestone cliffs that make Ha Long Bay famous. Look out for fisherman casting traditional nets on their floating villages and pearl farms.

Day 10 (B/L) This morning we attend to our professional agenda and meet with Vietnamese lawyers. After lunch, we return to Ho Chi Minh City. Equatorial Hotel

Day 11 (B) This morning we return to San Francisco via our connecting flight in Hong Kong.
