Dear R.N. and L.P.N. Colleagues:

It's a pleasure to invite you, your family and friends to enjoy a study tour to Turkey. This all-inclusive program visits the most important sites that you can see in this ancient land that overflows with culture and history.

A professional CPC tour manager will be with you for your entire trip, and when you reach Turkey, local guides will also help you get the most out of your program.

This beautiful land is a mosaic of art, history and culture. Near the Garden of Eden and site of the final resting place of Noah's Ark and past capital of the Roman Empire, Turkey is one of the most fascinating countries in the world. Home at times to the Hittite, Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman empires, this beautiful land integrates elements of both East and West.

Here is the Mediterranean coastline that Anthony gave to Cleopatra, Homer's Troy, and the Ephesian Theater where St. Paul preached the Gospels. Visiting Turkey, an ally and friend of the United States for decades, is an exciting experience. Among the features that are included in this program for you to enjoy are:

- A CPC Tour Director Will Help You Throughout The Entire Program

- Visit To Florence Nightingale's First Nursing Hospital

We will visit the birthplace of professional nursing, the first nursing hospital where Florence Nightingale nursed British soldiers back to health during the Crimean War (1853-1855). Her two rooms with the original furniture are preserved as they were in the nineteenth century. Nearby, her memorial overlooks a British military cemetery. Nurse Nightingale began our profession.

The educational purpose of this program is to provide a comparative survey of the nursing profession in Turkey, as well as to bring us up to date with other current developments in our profession. To enable us to have a more complete idea about nursing in Turkey, meetings are planned for us to exchange ideas and experiences with our Turkish colleagues.

Barack Obama chose Turkey for his first presidential visit to a Muslim nation. Earlier, Turkey was visited by President Bush and his wife Barbara. Later Mrs. Clinton and her daughter Chelsea toured this ancient land. They all encouraged Americans to enjoy the magnificent history, beauty and culture that encompasses Turkey.

Welcome to Turkey.

Since visiting Turkey, President and Mrs. Bush and Secretary Hillary Clinton have encouraged Americans to visit Turkey and see its magnificent sites. An ally and friend of the United States for decades, Turkey is one of the most fascinating lands in the World that you can visit. You will experience the eternal romance of Turkey, and discover the seat of many civilizations and empires. Home at times to the Hittite, Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman empires, this beautiful land integrates elements of East and West. Turkey abounds with archaeological ruins of Greece,

Rome and the ancient Hittite Empire. You will travel along the same Mediterranean coastline that Anthony gave to Cleopatra, visit Homer's Troy, the Ephesian Theater where St. Paul preached and see the sunset amidst the stone heads of fallen gods. A country whose essence is the tolerance of many different cultures, Turkey is easing its way into the future in a civilized way. Shopping is fantastic with endless buys in leather goods, jewelry and fashion fabrics.

Day 3. (B,L) We meet with Turkish nurses, sightsee in Ankara, and then travel to Cappadocia. Cappadocia Lodge Country Club,

After breakfast we attend to our professional agenda and meet with Turkish nurses at a local hospital. Later, we travel to Cappadocia by air conditioned motorcoach while we sightsee on our way.

About Cappadocia and its underground cities

Cappadocia is a strange corner of Turkey that is unique to the world. Over time, frequent volcanic eruptions covered much of this land with a layer of mud, ashes and lava. Erosion created a surreal splendor of cones, needles, pyramids and pillars in a starkly beautiful range of yellow, pink, violet-grey and russet colors. During the 7th century, to escape persecution from Roman armies, early Christians built complete underground cities 14 stories deep enabling them to hide for months from marauding Romans. They were hidden so well that they were only rediscovered in the 1960's. We will see the most famous cities of Derenku and Kaymaki.

Day 4. (B,L) We are in Cappadocia and visit Goreme, Zelve, and the ancient underground city of Kaymakli.

Cappadocia Lodge & Country Club

Today we tour the Gorem Valley, known for its many churches carved into the rock of the region between the 7th and 13th centuries when it was said Goreme had a church for every day of the year. These living museums display the original early Christian frescoes. The most famous of these cities are Derinku and Kaymakli. Kaymakli's underground chambers boasts wine cellars, chapels, stables and tombs. Then we see the ancient villages of Uchisar and Zelve.

Day 5. (B, L) We travel to Konya and visit the Whirling Dervishes Museum, then continue on to Pamukale.

Colossea Hotel Thermal

Today we visit Konya, Anatolia's holy city settled 4,000 years ago and once capital of the Seljuk Empire. It's one of the world's most ancient cities. St. Paul and St. Barnabus preached there in the years 47 - 53 when it was named Claudiconium for Emperor Claudius. Later, in 1207 it became home of Meviana the great mystic who created the rite of the Whirling Dervishes which you'll see during your visit. The shrine is a creation of beauty and opulence.

Day 6. (B, L) We visit Aphrodisias Ephesus, St. John's Basilica and the Virgin Mary's house, then continue on to Kusadasi. Kurumar Hotel.

This morning we set out for aphrodisias, dedicated to Aphrodite, the Greek Goddess of Love, now an ancient city with a long history of Greek, Roman and Byzantine rule. This splendor was forgotten until Dr. Kernan Erim of New York University revealed it in 1960. Aphrodisias' ruins are many and well preserved. Among the sights you will see are the Hellenistic Temple of Aphrodite, the Roman Baths of Hadrian, the Byzantine Wall, and an ancient Roman stadium capable of seating 30,000 people. We will also visit a museum. After lunch we visit Ephesus and see the Ephesus Museum, the Theater, the Virgin Mary's house, the Harbor Street, the Brothel and the public latrine and the Celsus Library, and the Basilica of St. John. More about Ephesus follows.

About Ephesus

Ephesus is the most famous of the cities of Asia Minor. The Roman historian Herodotus believed that the most ancient people in Anatolia were the Amazons who originally founded Ephesus. Famous for its Temple of Artemis (one of the Seven Wonders of the World) this sacred city was forgotten until the early 20th century when it was rediscovered.

Now, it is one of the world's largest archaeological sites, divided into three areas: the Temple of Artemis, the Basilica of St. John and the city of Ephesus. When St. Paul preached the Gospels in 53 AD, he built Ephesus into a center of Christianity through his persuasion and perseverance. Later, many of Christianity's principles were established there in 431 AD. It is recorded that the Virgin Mary lived the last years of her life in Ephesus. We will visit her house.

Day 7. (B,L,D) We meet with Turkish nurses and travel to Istanbul via Troy and see the legendary "Trojan Horse". Finally, we cross over to Istanbul. Point Hotel.

After breakfast we attend to our professional agenda with a meeting with Turkish nurses. Later, we visit legendary Troy, followed by Gallipoli, then cross the Sea of Marmara by ferry, to Istanbul, the city bridging Europe and Asia. We stay at the Four Star Point Hotel.

First we visit the remains of Troy where Western literature had its beginnings with Homer's Iliad and Odyssey (around 1184BC). We will walk through Troy's ruins and see a replica of the legendary Trojan Horse. Next we go to Gallipoli where one of the First World War's most massive battles was fought and 500,000 soldiers lost their lives. Then we continue on to Istanbul where we stay at the four star 84 room Point Hotel, located in the old city center. The hotel offers two restaurants, bar and disco, night club and jacuzzi.

About Istanbul

Established in the 7th Century B.C., Istanbul was known as Byzantium then Constantinople, finally as Istanbul in 1453, after the fall of the Eastern Roman Empire. It has been immortalized in art and literature since then. Today as a sprawling metropolis with 6,000,000 residents, Istanbul also offers terrific shopping opportunities. Istanbul is divided into three major sections. The oldest is Byzantium, the longest surviving capital of the Roman Empire. The modern commercial sections borders Byzantium. Last is the Asian side, with its residential streets separated from the European side by the Bosphorus. Among the world famous sights that we will see in Istanbul are: The Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace, St. Sophia, Suleymaniye Mosque, Kariye Museum, and the Bosphorus.

Day 8. (B,L) We visit St. Sophia Cathedral, the Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace, Hippodrome and the Mosque of Soliman the Magnificent. This afternoon is free for shopping at the Grand Bazaar for some "shopping victories". Point Hotel.

This morning we visit the spectacular St. Sophia Cathedral and the Blue Mosque (Its interior is covered with 20,000 beautifully decorated blue Iznik tiles), Topkapi Palace Museum, brimming with ancient works of art. After Topkapi, visit Mosque of Soliman the Magnificent. Later, we go to the Bazaar and world-class shopping. The best bargains are found in the old town where artisans work at traditional crafts. There are more than 4,000 small shops in the Covered Bazaar to delve into for great shopping bargains. Handwoven Turkish rugs, silver, brass, copperware, embroideries, and soft beautifully worked leather goods (from wallets to long soft leather jackets and coats) are yours to bargain for.

Day 9. (B, D) We cruise on the Bosphorus this morning and see the first nursing hospital of Florence Nightingale - where the nursing profession began. Point Hotel.

Today we cruise the Bosphorus, separating Asia from Europe. This is a beautiful way to see the beauty of Istanbul. After cruising, we visit the original two rooms and furniture used by Florence Nightingale when she nursed British soldiers during the Crimean War (1853-1855). A memorial to Nurse Nightingale is at a nearby British cemetery. Later we have lunch and then attend to our professional agenda meet with Turkish nurses at a local hospital.

Day 10. (B,) Today you're free to follow your own desires. Point Hotel.

Today is free for you to follow your own agenda. Perhaps more sightseeing. Maybe more shopping.

Day 11. (B) We return to New York via a mid morning Turkish Airlines flight arriving there this afternoon.
